

POSTCARD FOR A FRIEND Imagine you are visiting your artist's home. Find out some interesting facts and write a postcard to a friend telling about your visit. What do you like about your host? Remember to include important details about the person on your postcard. Then turn the card over. Draw a picture of the artist or a picture that the artist inspires you to create. Be as creative and colorful as possible.	LYRICS Use some facts and details to write a rap song (or poem) about your artist. Be as creative as possible. Use age appropriate language.	CREATE A QUIZ SHOW What facts did you learn while researching your artist? Choose about twenty details of factual information. On each card, write a question related to your artist. On another card, write the answer to the question. The game may be set up with 4 players and a quiz master. Write up the rules.
DIGITAL STORY Create a digital story using Photostory 3. Include the information from your topics list in an interesting, creative presentation. No Word Walls!	DESIGN A BOOKMARK Design a bookmark that describes the artist you researched. First, decide on the shape of it. Add patterns and illustrations, leaving room for written words about factual information you learned from your research. List 10 important facts about your artist in order of importance.	VOICETHREAD Complete a Give me a voicethread, please form for this option. Then create a voicethread that presents your information in a creative, interesting way. http://wildcat_art.ed.voicethread.com/
A FACT SPINNER GAME Using a compass and scissors, draw and then cut an 8 inch circle from card stock. Divide the circle into eights using a ruler. In each pie-shaped wedge, write one question about the artist you are researching. Use a brass fastener to attach an arrow-shaped paper to use as a spinner in the middle.	WALL WISHER Create a wallwisher that presents your information in a creative, interesting way. http://wallwisher.com	